

Student Support Schemes, Endowments and Scholarships

The college has a policy that no student enrolled on merit will be forced to drop out due to financial difficulties. As a result, the college has made provisions to reach out to students who require financial or material assistance to complete their study. As a result, the Parent-Teacher Association, Alumni Association, and College Management have set aside funds to assist needy students with books, study tools, and lunch coupons in addition to financial assistance. The institution provides various endowments and scholarships to meritorious students.
